

İ. Hakkı Arslan*General Manager, Banking and Financial Institutions Department, Central Bank of Turkey

İ. Hakkı Arslan earned his BS degree from Istanbul University Department of Economics. He started working at the Central Bank of Turkey in 1979 as an Assistant Auditor. In 1987 he was assigned to conduct research on banking in London for one year. He was appointed as the Assistant General Manager of the Banking Department in 1994. Before that, he worked in this Department as an auditor responsible for on site auditing of banks. In 2000, he became the General Manager of the Banking and Financial Institutions Department. Mr. Arslan has attended several seminars and conferences within the country and abroad as speaker or participant, especially on central banking, banking supervision and regulation, risk management and financial stability. He also has several articles on these issues published in various journals.