

Dr. Erdem Bařcı

Born in Ankara in 1966, Erdem Bařcı was graduated from TED Ankara College High School in 1983. Mr. Bařcı earned a B.S. in Electrical and Electronics Engineering from the Middle East Technical University with high honors in 1987. He completed the M.B.A. program at Bilkent University by ranking the first (1989). Having obtained his M.A. in Economics from Bilkent University (1990), Mr. Bařcı received his second M.A. degree in Economics from Johns Hopkins University (1993). He obtained his Ph.D. in Economics from Bilkent University in 1995. Between 1995 and 2003, he worked at Bilkent University, Economics Department, as an assistant professor. He received the title of "Doçent" from the Council of Higher Education (YÖK) in 1999. Monetary economics, financial economics, macroeconomic theory and mathematical economics are his research and teaching areas. Dr. Bařcı lectured at the University of York, UK as an honorary visiting fellow in 1999. He has presented many discussion papers at international conferences.

Dr. Bařcı's academic papers have been published in Oxford Economic Papers, Journal of Banking and Finance, Journal of Economic Dynamics and Control, and Journal of Mathematical Economics. He also co-authored various chapters in books published by Springer-Verlag and Palgrave. Besides his theoretical contributions to the economic literature, Dr. Bařcı has academic publications on the Turkish Economy as well.

Dr. Erdem Bařcı was appointed as Vice Governor on October 9, 2003.