

Foo Lee Mei
General Counsel
Chairman's Office
Securities Commission Malaysia

Foo Lee Mei is the General Counsel of the Securities Commission Malaysia. She obtained her LLB (1st Class Hons) from University Malaya in 1987. She was admitted to the Malaysian Bar as an Advocate and Solicitor in 1993.

Prior to her employment with the Securities Commission, Lee Mei served as Deputy Public Prosecutor with the Attorney-General's Chambers for 6 years where she handled prosecution of commercial crime cases and appeals at the High Court and Supreme Court.

She joined the Securities Commission as Manager of the Prosecution Department and served as General Manager of the Enforcement Division from 2000-2008 where she was involved in several major investigation and prosecutions launched by the Securities Commission including the successful prosecution of Malaysia's first insider trading case.

She was re-gazetted as a Deputy Public Prosecutor by the Attorney General with effect from 25 October 2004 and continues to lead appeals at the High Court, Court of Appeal and the Federal Court for cases initiated by the Securities Commission.

Lee Mei was transferred to the General Counsel's Office in January 2008 and took over the position of General Counsel in December that year. She currently leads SC's policy and regulatory initiatives and reforms for the capital market.

Lee Mei was Co-Chair of APG's (Asia Pacific Group on Money Laundering) Typologies Working Group from 2008-2009 and has driven many of APG's initiatives in the collection and analysis of case studies on money laundering in the securities sector in the region. Lee Mei is also a trained APG assessor and is one of APG's resource person in the conduct of assessment on member countries' compliance with FATF (Financial Action Task Force) 40+9 Recommendations.